College in Idaho. Since they came to Salt Lake City, all but one sister have moved west. The parents of this family were converts of the LDS Church and have raised the children in that church.

Since coming to Salt Lake, Rick has been involved in realstate and investments in realstate. Recently he has become involved in computer products sales, after two years investigating video business, he decided to go into business for himself. He knew the chairman of Adventureland, Marty Ekman, who recommended that he take over the Heber store, situated within the Safeway Shopping Plaza.

Diane Packard and Richard C. Bean were married, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple, on April 8, 1977. She was born and raised in Bountiful, Utah, daughter of Dee R. and Ivalue Larson Packard. Diane is the youngest of six children.

After graduating from Viewmont High School, she went on to study at BYU for one year. She was trained as a legal secretary and worked for the law firm of Trask and Britt. Diane is also a had been in danger from last year's floods and they said that their area, in the south end of Bountiful was far from the trouble; however, Rick had spent much time in helping to pack and place sandbags for those endangered areas.

Rick said that he has been a Scout Master these past two years and that he really enjoyed this work. These young people have come through the valley several times and have always stopped to enjoy its beauty. They say that they will be glad to live here as they prefer to live in a small town like the ones we have in Heber Valley.

About a month ago, Julie Tubbs was interviewed by a corporate officer of "Adventureland Video" and became the assistant manager, now the Beans are here as owner-managers of the business; she will stay on in that position.

Julie Tubbs is the daughter of Virl and Ellen Peterson of Center Creek, whose people were early settlers of the valley. She graduated from Wasatch High School in 1967. Her hobbies are flower arranging, designing, playing the piano, all forms of art work

His Merry Men" is Coming

It's Spring and 100 voices ring out through Sherwood Forest. The plot thickens as the Wasatch Children's Chorus prepares for "Robin and His Merry Men". Clashing blows of a sword fight will contrast with voices of sweet minstrels and combine to make an entertaining musical production. Will Robin Hood and Little John succeed in freeing the people of Nottingham from Prince John's Clutch?

Brad Thompson will direct this performance. He is a conductor with the enthusiasm and skill it takes to work with energetic children ages 7-12. The children's training, love for music, and eagerness to perform, will provide an excellent evening of entertainment for the entire family.

(oil painting, pastels, etc.), sewing, writing and reading. Julie is married to Larry Tubbs who is originally from Chicago. They have four children in their family: Dawn is 12 and Trenton is 10. They live in Center Creek at the present time. Julie and the Beans are really excited about the Let's Get Acquainted week to occur soon. There has been a lot of activity in preparation for it, and we wish them every success.

I asked if their present home in Bountiful, and are the Rick and Diane have made their home in Bountiful, and are the parents of two boys and a girl. Now that they are going into business in Heber City, they want to sell their home and live here in Heber Valley. They are looking for a place to rent until they can buy.

While in Institute High School, Rick was chosen to represent his school at Boy's State; he graduated from Lynden High in 1974. Before coming west, he attended Johnson State College and Lynden State College where he majored in music. Rick's mother decided to move to Salt Lake in 1976, and she asked Rick if he would like to come with her. He decided to come with her. He has one sister who is a student at BYU and another who lives in Idaho Falls and attended Rexburg

February 22, 1956. He is the fifth of six children born to Calvin and Elsa Bean, now Elsa Foster. Calvin C. Bean was a quality control man in the machine products industry. Elsa was in the secretarial and sales work whenever she felt the need to work as her children became older. Rick, as he is known, has played the guitar and sung since he was five years old; he sings and plays music of his own composition and other popular composers. In fact,
